

The Musician's Studio

CMEA

1•13•22 - So what's it really like to study music in college? Talk with college students studying music & learn the real deal. Bring your questions!

1•20•22 - AV with the San Diego Symphony. Check out the audiovisual expertise of Joel Watts, SDSO Director of Audio, & James Fogarty, Video Department Head. Discover how they bring the sites & sounds of the symphony to life!

1•27•22 - Symphony Behind the Scenes Meet Jesse Schiffman & staff from the San Diego Symphony and learn what it takes to get the music on stage.

2•3•22 - Q & A with Eric Whitacre Yes, you read that right! Meet & talk with world-famous composer & conductor, Eric Whitacre. He'll share his story & invite questions from the participants. Take a listen to a few of his virtual choirs, check out his latest news, & discover his music for band & orchestra.

2•10•22 - YOU are a COMPOSER! Join this session to compose live with a large group and learn about Ableton. (There might even be a gift for the participants.) LIMITED SEATS - register early!

The Musician's Studio - 2022

A series of live, interactive, online sessions for grades 6-12 and college music students.

Join us to meet, talk with, & learn from these accomplished people!

Real-World • Real Stories
Real Music

Registration Fees:

Participant/Director is Active NAFME Member:

$10 a session or $40 for 5 sessions

Participant/Director is Non-NAFME Member:

$15 a session or $60 for 5 sessions

Register here

THURSDAYS, 2022

6:30-7:30 PM, PST

JAN 13

JAN 20

JAN 27

FEB 3

FEB 10

San Diego Symphony

Rafael Payare | Music Director

To receive the $10 a session or $40/5 session fee: registrants in grades 6-12 must verify their music teachers' CMEA membership number. College students must be a collegiate member. If your teacher is not comfortable sharing their membership number, email CMEA@calmusiced.com