

California Music Educators Association Current and Aspiring Leaders 2023 Fall Professional Learning Seminars

The California Music Educators Association annual Music/Arts Program Leaders Professional Learning Days is a time to reconnect and collaborate with arts program leaders across California. This seminar is for current and aspiring leaders.

Take advantage of the expertise from dozens of fellow program leaders and arts administrative experts in preparing for the new renaissance of arts education that is on the horizon for all California Schools. Light breakfast, lunch, and parking included.

This year we will be hosting two events with the same content to help make your travel more convenient. Also, there will be special session for new arts leaders to assist in the transition to new responsibilities and work environments. We will discuss developing high impact leadership capacities, strategizing your workday, and identifying a support network.
